BY LIAISON

Vice Admiral William F. Raborn, Jr.
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral Raborn:

I am enclosing a copy of a letter which I have sent to one of your employees [REDACTED] who is leaving your Agency in the near future. I did want to let you know that we in the Bureau have held [REDACTED] in high regard in her capacity as a Liaison Officer who has so efficiently handled voluminous matters of interest to the Bureau and the Central Intelligence Agency.

The Honorable J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am indeed appreciative for your thoughtful letter to [REDACTED] and for conveying to me your Bureau's high regard for her work.

[REDACTED] has served this Agency since its establishment in 1947, having been with predecessor organizations during and after World War II. Her record represents unbroken continuity in professional counterintelligence. It is my hope, therefore, that when her family obligations have been discharged she will rejoin us in Washington.

Our liaison with the Federal Bureau of Investigation is central to the overall conduct of counterintelligence and we value in particular, therefore, your commendatory acknowledgment of [REDACTED] service.

Sincerely,

W. F. Raborn

TO: Honorable W. F. Raborn
Director
Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Mr. Raborn

1. I am informed that [REDACTED] of your Counterintelligence staff will depart in the near future for an extended leave of absence.

2. In her capacity as Liaison Officer to the Office of Special Investigations, USAF, [REDACTED] has been of great service to the Office of Special Investigations (OSI) in the accomplishment of its counterintelligence mission. Over the years the CIA-OSI working relationship has constantly improved and has recently reached a state of highly effective coordination of interdepartmental counterintelligence activities. [REDACTED] as directly contributed to this success through her outstanding performance.

3. I wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for Mrs. [REDACTED] superior assistance to the Office of Special Investigations.

Sincerely

JOSEPH J. CAPPUCCI
